MASS MEETING IN LEXINGTON THE BALL IN MOTION

At a meeting held at the court-house, in Lexington, Ky, on the 114h day of December, 1860, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the convention to be held in Louisville ou the 8th of January next, on untion of Gen. D. S. Goodlee, Maj Thos ll Waters was called to the chair, and Speed S Goodle appointed secretary, on motion of Col B. W. Hanson. After a clear and forcible stalement of the object of the meeting had been made by GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE the chairman, Col. Roger W. Hanson adlressed the meeting in an able and charaoristic speech. He urged a union of the ouglas and Bell men on the firm and imnovable basis of non-intervention by Congress with slavery in the Territories, States, and District of Columbia. He was willing to stand on the Compromise Measures of 1850, indorsed and supported by Clay, Webster, and Douglas, as well as adhere to the principles of non intervention embodied in the ciples of non intervention embodied in the Kansas-Nebraska act. He believed it to be again t mistaking any other claiming the sar the only principle on which a untional party the only principle on which a national party uld be erected, in the present crisis, suf ficient to stay the hands of fanatics, both North and South. Let the People Speak.

DECEMBER 34, 1860. Gentlemen: When a portion of the Deur cracy at Charleston bolted from the Demo ratic Convention, you charged that their lesign was disunion; but this was denied When Major Breckinridge was nominated yon still charged that his friends were lisunionists; that their course would elect Lincoln; but a large number of your readers did not believe you. We supposed that Indiana, Illinois, New Jersey and California, would vote for Douglas or a union ticket, which would defeat Lincoln and bring the election into the House or Senate, which would elect Breckinridge or Lano. We thought this the most certain manner of de feating Lincoln. Many of us espoused the cause of the bolters against our will, for no other cause than a belief that Douglas could not be elected by the people, seeing the Administration was against him, but that

Brecking ecould be by the House
We had full confidence that the Administration would aid us in the North, so far at least as to vote for a Union ticket or for Douglar, but to our surprise and great nortification, we saw in the State elections that the Administration had so managed affairs, that Pennsylvania and Iudiana were lost to us. We saw, when too late, that the lost to us. We saw, when too take, that the Administration of James Buchanan was against the South; that instead of using the power invested in it by the Constitution to protect the country, it had been used to add its enemies. But voting for Douglas in the South we knew would do no gooil, and pre-fering Breckinridge to Bell, many of us voted for him. But the election is over, and what should we now do, since we see clearly that Buchauan has deceived us, and that there really is a large party in favor of a dissolu-tion of this blood-bought Union? For one, I am resolved hereafter to act with any party that really is in favor of the Union. I am for my country, right or wrong.
The abelitionists cannot harmus, if we will cuse our Senators to stand by Senator Dong-has. He has proclaimed at New Orleans that he will not vote to confirm any of Lincoln's he will not vote to confirm any of Lincoln's appoint the right kind of men. You see at once this walld break down the Abolition party; because they, after all, care more for office than they do for the negro. The Sunth should, under these circumstances, hold meetings and instruot their Senators to stand by Judge boughas in this equatitational matter. If the people will speak out, you will soon see our feetures coming too; because they the people will speak out, you will soon see our ferut rs coming too; because they have lately found that politicians cannot have lattly found that politicians cannot rule the people-act least freem, of Missouri, Lane, of Oregen, Fitch, of Indiana, and Bigler, of Pennsylvania, have so found. Fo day the arrangement is perfected, and hings remain in statu quo until after com-missioners shall have fulled to arrange for a eaceable separation Secretary Thompson will soon follow Mo Cobb. He entered his effice to day, but did nothing more than hos over a few letters on his table. Cook has at last resigned, but his successor has not been nominated, all though rumor says differently. One report is that Mr. Guttorie has been named, and mucher that Mr. Holt takes the Treasury and Hon L. O. B. Branch the Postoffice Hepariment. Still another rumor is that Mr. Schell goes into the cabinet.

The Herrel's Washington correspondent says that Mr. Fu haunn has tendered the effice of Secretary of Treasury 10 Mr. Buthrie, ex Secretary of Treasury under President Pierce, and he has accepted by tabigraph. My authority is from so high a character that I cannot doubt the report. obb. He entered his office to day, but did Freights on cotton to Liverpool, b. Exchange and an 94 above. Washington, December 11.—The Times' respondence says that Mr Prescotl, arer of the President's message to South trolling, was also charged with the fully of multing the State authorities as to their urposes after the ordinance of secession cas passed. He returned last evening and eports everything quiet and no danger of a officion with the Federal Government chatacter that I cannot detail thereport.

The following is from the Warle's correspondence: It seems well credited that Postma-ten-General Holt will be Iransferred to the Treasury, and Mr King, now First Assistant, will be made l'ostmaster. Mr. orning is also named as successor to Mr

Cobb.
Miles, Bonham, and McQueen called upon the President to day and load a long consultation with him with regard to the secession of South Carolina, and the terms on which she will go ant af the Union.

The business of the Treasury was entirely suspended to day. As the President day not commission Mr. Chylon, Mr. Cobb's assistant, to lill the office temporarily as herelotore, this omission was considered significant. Reverdy Johnson, who has just returned

The Democrats from the Northwest have The Democrats from the Northwest have had several conferences relative to the pretent condition of political affairs. They generally take the position set forth in the speeches of Messra. McClemand and Vallandigham pesterday, tamely, that the Union caunot be dissolved penceably; that the Northwest will under no circumstances consent to be cut off from the full of Mexico and the city of New O-leans; that the Government whitever may be its faults, is of inestimable value. The leading idea is a central government, embracing the Middle,
